Dear students, parents and friends,

Last Friday, Wandin Yallock students demonstrated their fine sporting abilities at the 5/6 Hooptime competition in Kilsyth. We had 3 teams competing with all teams performing commendably on the day. It was great to have students who don’t normally play basketball giving it a try as well. Once again, I would like to acknowledge and thank Rachel Harrison who organised the teams and ran some lunchtime training.

Monday’s curriculum day was a productive day for staff. One of the initiatives we looked at was the use of learning intentions to help students differentiate between and focus on what they are learning during each session rather than just knowing they are doing. Often when parents ask their students what they did at school today they get responses such as “nothing, not much, maths, writing”. We are aiming for students to be able to articulate the skills, knowledge, understanding etc. that they are learning rather than what they are doing. You, as parents can support this by framing your questions about your children’s day to include this language – For example, instead of asking “What did you DO in maths today?” try “What were you LEARNING about in maths today?” Together we can help encourage this pattern of thinking in our students.

Yesterday the 5/6s were invited to watch the Lilydale High School’s musical production, ‘Suessical the Musical’. As well as being entertained by an impressive production, full of Suess rhyme and humour, the students enjoyed discussing the characters, costuming and choreography on display.

Hopefully this experience will encourage and give ideas to our students as they prepare for our own school concert later this term.

Have a great week,

OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENTS

JACK D.

Jack D., we just love what you’ve been doing lately! You have worked really hard with your spelling and your results have been fantastic. You are always finding the best learning spot and WOW – you are listening so well. You are so helpful, always doing little jobs around the classroom, (our computers looked brand new after you’d dusted and polished them.) Jack, keep up this fabulous attitude. It’s really paying off for you!

SOPHIE L.

We are so glad that Sophie came to our school. She has fitted so easily into our class and whole school community, displaying integrity, respect, friendship and the caring Wandin Yallock ways. Sophie is enthusiastic in her approach to her learning and is always keen to share ideas and be a part of everything. She did not hesitate in offering to go to Mont de Lancey at very short notice, or to be the first to recite an Australian poem to the grade. Sophie’s poetry recital of “The Man from Snowy River” was outstanding. It was clear that Sophie was well rehearsed. She spoke clearly, made eye contact with her audience, used expression and dressed in character. All this contributed to an excelling presentation which the audience thoroughly enjoyed. Sophie you have really set the bar high! Keep on shining!

SARAH D.

What a delight it is to see Sarah blossom this term! She tackles every class activity with great enthusiasm and is always determined to do her very best. Sarah is a very talented writer who uses words to create fabulous images! Sarah is a kind friend to all and we love her original and interesting ideas for our concert! Keep smiling Sarah; you’re great!

Book Club Volunteers

Have you ever wondered how the Scholastic book club pamphlets and orders are processed? Well now is your chance to find out. We have had 2 fantastic mums who have organised book club for many years now. They have been sending your children the orders and then processing them and sending out the books once they arrive and also organising those special Christmas gifts we give out to children each Christmas. These 2 mums will be leaving the school at the end of the year when their youngest children go off to high school so we now need to hand this job to someone new (it would be great if we could get 2 volunteers to help each other out). It only takes a couple of hours for each issue (usually twice a term) so if you would like to become more involved in the school and help us organise this please contact the office.
