

‘WRITE NOW’

A Celebration of Writers and Writing at Wandin Yallock PS

Wandin Yallock students have a lot to be proud about when it comes to writing. Join us on Wednesday 7th September as we celebrate writing at Wandin Yallock PS, and the writers who have inspired us.

Students are invited to come dressed as their favourite book character or writer and join in a morning parade.

During the day we will enjoy a talk with celebrated children’s author, Claire Saxby. Claire will talk about where she finds inspiration, her writing routine, and the process and craft of writing. She will also read from her award winning book ‘Emu’, and share her writing tips.

To end the day, parents are invited to visit the multi-purpose room from 3pm onwards. There they will find, not only a wonderful display of student writing, but the writers themselves, who will give readings and talk about their work.

Put Wednesday the 7th September on your calendar ‘write now’!

WRITE NOW WRITE NOW WRITE NOW WRITE NOW

